NUMBER 51

The Bourbon Fiscal Court.

The Bourbon Fiscal Court met in regular monthly session Friday, with Judge Dundon presiding. The usual number of claims were allowed and ordered paid.

The Court appointed Esquires Mann and Howell a committee to have the Maysville and Lexington turnpike surfaced from the city limits to the Bethlehem pike. This part of the road lies immediately in front of the new fair grounds and will be built with the modern process of crushed rock, rolled and oiled.

Squire Anderson, of North Middletown precinct, presented a bill for three dollars for attending Circuit Court to make his report, as is required by law. County Attorney Moore objected to the payment of same on grounds that it was an unlawful claim, and was sustained by the Court.

No other business of importance was transacted.

Our New Superintendent.

The London, Ky., Echo prints a lengthy notice of the Teachers' Institute just closed there, and this is what it has to say of the new Superintendent of the Paris City Schools:

"The institute is being conducted by Prof. George W. Chapman, of Paris, who was selected as instructor, and it was the opinion of all who attended that no better selection could have been made. Prof. Chapman is a man of forceful character, of great intellectual ability, and if the teachers give due attention to his instruction, the pupils of the county who attend our schools will be benefitted to a greater extent than for many years."

Kentuckian Gets Good Place.

Richard Reid Rogers, formerly of Mt. Sterling, now of New York, has been chosen by Chairman Chonts as counsel for the Panama Canal Commission and sailed for Panama last Friday.

The position carries with it a handsome salary, and the selection of a Kentuckian for so important a position is quite an honor to the State. Mr. Rogers was the stepson of Judge Richard Reid, deceased, and was born in Bourbon county, being the son of the late Ben Rogers.

"Elk" Killed By Trolley Car.

Mr. J. M. Brennan is grieving over the loss of his beautiful Irish setter, "Elk." The dog had run off from home Sunday, and happened to run up on his master at the interurban station. Being a very intelligent dog and knowing he had done wrong, he was slowly creeping toward Mr. Brennan as a car was coming in, and to make him get out of the way of the car a little boy struck at him with an umbrella which made him jump right under the wheel, his head and shoulders being severed from his body. He was an intelligent and valuable hunting dog, probably the best trained dog in the county, and highly prized by his owner. Mr. Brennan had the remains put in a box and buried in his yard.

What the People Want.

In the contest between Lexington and Louisville for the location of the State Fair it would be well for the State Board of Agriculture to take in consideration the desires of the people of the whole State, so far as they can ascertain from the public. This was conclusively demonstrated last fall after Lexington had made a tremendous success of the State Fair, when both Louisville and Owensboro had previously failed. The truest index to the attitude of any community is the newspapers of that community. After the fair last fall every newspaper in Kentucky said editorially that Lexington was the logical place for the permanent location of the fair. It should be conclusive evidence for the State Board of Agriculture that there is no other city in Kentucky where the State Fair can be made a success. You want it located at a place where all the people of the State can reach without difficulty, and there is no question about Lexington not being that place. In fact, it is the only logical city for the State Fair. Why quibble about this matter, gentlemen, there is certainly not a single member of this Board can say that Lexington is not the place. It has been proven to you.

How About This?

A comparison of the population within a radius of 100 miles of Lexington, as taken from the U. S. census, was published in a Lexington paper last week. It gave Fayette county 42,090. A few weeks ago a census was taken in the city of Lexington and heralded to the world as something over 41,000. Take this from the U. S. census above and it gives a population of 1,070 that live in Fayette county outside of the city of Lexington. They live, of course on the Haggin farm. No wonder farm labor is scarce in Fayette. Plain figures show these facts and the Lexington papers should let up about the scarcity of farm labor.

The same comparison gave Clark county a population of 16,694, and it has only been a few days since the census of Winchester was published as something over 13,000. This gives Clark a population of 3,694 outside of Winchester. Tote fair gentlemen, come down off your perch and tell us how about this.

Tainted Money.

The Democrats of Wisconsin in their platform just adopted remind the country that the Republican national committee has not made restitution of the large sums received from the Life Insurance corporations filched from the funds that should have been sacred to the widows and orphans of policy holders. The plank adopted condemns the Republican party for the acceptance of the policy holders' money and demands that the same be restored. Now President Roosevelt has 5 months' holiday before him, there can be no excuse, for lack of time, for his not taking up the matter with Chairman Cotelyou and ordering that restitution of these tainted funds be made to their rightful owners.

The Minority Won Out.

Most Republican Congressmen consider their greatest achievements of the session just closed to be the "pure pork bill" which makes some Republicans' constituencies believe they are "doing things." The Democrats point with pride that they forced the Republican majority to vote for a rate bill, a pure food bill, and other remedial legislation that have for years been the principal planks in Democratic platforms.

Don't Restrict His Appetite.

Some of esteemed contemporaries are much exercised over President Roosevelt's statement that he eats nothing but hard boiled eggs for breakfast. The food that Mr. Roosevelt eats may become a public importance if it affects his brain or temperament, but only in those cases should it be discussed. Are we to understand that these critics would restrict the presidential appetite and compel him to limit the hardness and number of eggs he can engorge. Many notable epicures have had strange likings for queer food, as for instance the English King who died of eating too many lampreys and as Mr. Roosevelt may not be versed in the gastronomic art or may prefer hard boiled eggs to soft boiled ones, why not let him have his own way without criticism.

Defective plumbing permits the entrance into the house of sewer gas bearing germs or contagious disease to which the human system readily succumbs. Sewer gas is not necessarily generated in the sewer, but is frequently created in the plumbing system within the home and enters the apartments through defective fixtures. Southern Boy Drove off Burglar.

A daring would-be robber was put to flight through the bravery of 17-year-old John Holland, employed in the office of the Pamlico & Western Railroad company at New Bern, N. C. The boy, who sleeps in the office, heard the man break a window. Seizing a revolver he fired at the intruder, but the shots lodged in the window frame. Following the burglar out on the station platform young Holland fired a parting shot which evidently took effect from the way the man screamed with pain as he made his escape in the darkness.

Louis Napoleon Answered.

Lady Blessington did not always meet with gratitude from some whose position at last enabled them to serve her. She sheltered in her London home Louis Napoleon after he had escaped from his prison in Ham. After Louis Napoleon became president of the French republic he seems to have turned the cold shoulder on Lady Blessington and Count D'Orsay when they approached him in Paris. There was a story going at the time, for the accuracy of which we certainly will not vouch, but which appeared in several of the London papers. Shortly before Lady Blessington's death she met, so the story goes, the president driving in the Champs Elysees. He stopped his carriage, she stopped hers, and they conversed for a few minutes. His manner seemed to her determinedly chilly. "Do you stay long in Paris?" he asked as he was about to drive on.
"No," she answered. "And you?"— London Spectator.

George Eliot and "Remola."

George Eliot's first arrangement with the publisher of "Remola" was for no less a sum than 10,000 guineas. "As that is so very large a figure," he said, "I must run it through fifteen numbers of the Cornhill." "No," she answered; "it must finish in twelve numbers or the artistic effect of the story will be lost. I quite understand the necessity for its prolongation from a commercial point of view, so we'll say 7,000 guineas. Instead of the 10,000." And 7,000 guineas was accordingly paid for the copy. Three thousand guineas seem a large sum to give up for an artistic scruple, but she did it.

Bad For Creditors.

In the faraway, benighted community of Dampen, in Africa, the old fashioned method of throwing a debtor into prison, where he is safe from the tormenting visits of his creditors, is not followed. Instead, he is practically thrust over to the mercy of the creditors in a literal sense. A heavy tree log is attached to his bare leg, and this he is obliged to drag after him wherever he goes. There is no escaping the creditors now, and the log remains bound to his ankle until his debts are paid.

Curiosities of Woman.

Women pin from left to right; men from right to left. Women button from right to left; men from left to right. Women stir from left to right (their tea, for instance); men from right to left. Women seldom know the dif-
shoe, and if a housemaid brings up a man's boots she will nine times out of ten place them so that the points will diverge. Can these peculiarities be explained?—London Truth.

Cash Your Checks.

It is not well to keep checks locked up in your desk. Cash them. It is security for yourself. If the drawer is not entirely reliable, and a favor to him if he is. "Stale" checks are an annoyance to bank officials and a general hindrance. Cash your checks!

Sarcasm.

Softly—I'd have you to understand, sir, that I'm not such a fool as I look.
Sarcasm—Well, then, you have much to be thankful for.

Hank White Gave the Tip.

Hank White, the minstrel, lived in Reading, Vt., for many years. He was very fond of horse races, and rarely missed any of the meetings in Windsor or Rutland county. Once he attended a breeders' meeting at Rutland. The breeders' meetings were famous and attracted people from New York, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and all over Vermont. On this particular day Hank was seated in the grand stand, one of 5,000 people.

"Hod" Fish Inn, a well known character, was driving his horse Belvidere, a very large bay horse, with not too much speed, but the owner had an idea that he was a wonder. It was in the free for all race. All the horses except Belvidere had passed the grand stand almost neck and neck on the first half.
It was a beautiful race. Trailing behind about twenty rods came Belvidere, the driver urging him on to better efforts, and when he was in front of the grand stand Hank stood up and yelled at the top of his voice: "Take the first turn to the left, Hod; all the others have gone that way." Hod drove Belvidere to the barn.—Boston Herald.

"The Queen of Sicily."

Syracuse calls itself the capital of the south, but it has no cause to dispute pride of place with Palermo. The metropolitan city is superior in population, wealth and much else, but it is deficient in what its ancient and glorious rival has in such abundance. For Syracuse has the supreme charm of Greece in a way that no other city except Athens has. Not even in Corinth, nowhere in Hellas from Messina or Sparta in the south to Thebes in the north, is there any Hellenic town to compare with "the queen of Sicily." As a sanctuary, Delphi is far more impressive than anything in Sicily, as a national meeting place Olympia has no rival, but nowhere except at Athens is a Greek city to be seen today which has the proud record of the marvelous metropolis of the Sicilian Greeks, a city as great in power and wealth and beauty as Athens herself, and victor at last in the long and fatal rivalry which indirectly involved the passing of the Hellenic dominion of all the lands washed by the Ionian and Mediterranean seas.—Century.

Barefooted Waiting Maids In Japan.

Unless there are ladies among the guests the wife and daughters of the host do not appear at dinner in Japan.
Before the meal begins it is customary for them to bring small cups of tea and dainty confectionery, when they take their survey of the party. If gentlemen only are present the Japanese hostess disappears after the greeting is over and does not return until the guests are taking their departure. At a signal from the host barefooted waiting maids, dressed in graceful and prettily tinted kimonos, bring in lacquer tray, bearing tiny covered bowls. Before setting the trays on the table the maids sink gracefully to their knees and bend forward till their foreheads touch the floor. Then they serve dinner, which is of several courses.— Smith's Weekly.

A Lively Paper Cutter.

Here is a little story which the English papers tell and any one is at liberty to believe if he will. No affidavits go with it. When Lord Dufferin was viceroy of India the maharajah of Indor paid him a visit and asked as a memento an ivory paper cutter belonging to Lord Dufferin. He consented, the Indian left, and the viceroy never saw him until some months later when the maharajah introduced a fine young elephant into the room. A pile of newspapers lay at Lord Dufferin's side. The animal went up to them, cut them neatly with his tusks, which had been purposely sharpened, and laid them in a neat heap on the floor, ready for perusal.

Great Britain's Rainfall.

Rainfall is a condition which has much to do with our health. A wet district with a good deal of subsoil water, making houses damp, is a locality in which rheumatism and consumption are likely to prevail. Over England and Wales the average yearly rainfall is about thirty-four inches, in Scotland it reaches forty-six inches and in Ireland about thirty-eight inches. Possibly the wettest parts of Britain are in Cumberland, where the rainfall may attain 150 inches per year. One inch of rain on one acre of ground means a hundred tons of water.—London Graphic.

Heritages.

Leave children an accumulated fortune of memories and inspirations and examples and hopes, so that they are rich in brain and heart and soul and service. Then if you happen to leave them a fortune besides, if they have all these, the fortune will be shorn of its possibilities of evil and will become an instrument of higher and nobler good.—M. J. Savage.

Protection.

Mrs. Albee—Of course, you married
Mr. Bebee for love? Mrs. Bebee—Well, yes, I suppose you would call it that. I married him to protect him from no less than three widows in our street. If I hadn't snapped him up one of them would have been sure to get him.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. C. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them to urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

South Trimble Hopeful.

Representative South Trimble will leave Washington for home today.
Thus far he is the only man who has declared himself a candidate for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor, and he is hoping there will be no other entries.

"I do not expect to be the candidate of any faction," he said Thursday afternoon, "and will make my canvass as a straight Democrat. It is too early yet to make any forecasts, but I have received considerable encouragement from my friends in Kentucky, and believe I am as much entitled to the nomination as anybody else."

Fair Enough.

"If you will try a case of the famous Lion Beer, the best on earth, and are not pleased with it we will gladly refund your money." All doctors recommend this beer for family use and for convalescents.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease, as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach." Guaranteed by Oberdorfer, the druggist. Price 50c.

LEXINGTON, KY.Wheat Threshing.

Wheat threshing in Bourbon has made but little progress the past week owing to frequent showers in almost every section of the county. Fields that have been threshed are showing up better than anticipated, both as to quality and quantity, ranging from twelve to thirty-five bushels for the former, while the latter shows from sixty to sixty-two and a half pounds to the bushel.

Let every Democrat that can attend the Mass Convention to-day at the Court House, at 1 o'clock, and send a W. P. Kimball delegation to the District Convention at Frankfort to nominate a Democratic candidate for Congress. There is no candidate announced that will honor the old Ashland district more than Hon. W. P. Kimball. He is a Democrat, a brilliant lawyer and an orator. A poor farmer's boy that has climbed the ladder round by round by his own efforts. He is worthy the honor in every sense of the word and it is to be hoped that Bourbon's delegation will be solidly for him.

Send Two Buyers to Europe This Season.

Embry & Co., of Lexington, Ky., outfitters to women, will send two buyers to Europe for the in-coming season. This popular firm has added new features to the business each season and have taken advantage of every opportunity to keep in touch with the up-to-date until the next step is a visit to France and the other European markets.

W. R. Embry, buyer and manager of the Garment department, leaves Tuesday for New York where he will be joined by Miss Embry, buyer for the millinery department, and both will sail for Liverpool, thence to London and Paris.

This item will be of interest to friends and patrons who will realize that it is not necessary to go elsewhere than Lexington to obtain the best the world has to offer. Mr. Embry and Miss Embry will return to Lexington about September 1, but in the meantime new models will be sent out continually to interest early shoppers.

JOHN CHISHOLM

Knocked From Barn and Probably Fatally Injured.

John Chisholm, a well-known carpenter, of this city, while assisting in raising a section of a barn on the farm of Mr. Walker Muir, near Clintonville, fell about fourteen feet and received probably fatal injuries. Tom Kain, of this city, was also on the section that fell but escaped with slight injuries. The section they were raising gave way in some manner and toppled over, a large beam striking Mr. Chisholm and knocking him to the ground, a distance of about fourteen feet, large timbers falling on him. He suffered a fractured collar bone, fractured skull, scalp wound about four inches long and probably internal injuries which may prove fatal. Dr. Wm. Kenney was called to the scene as soon as the accident happened and dressed the wounds of the injured man, and afterwards brought him to his home in Davis' ambulance.

Death of Little Florence McCarthy.

Little Florence, the five months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. I. McCarthy, died Sunday morning at 2 o'clock, after several days' illness.

The sweet little cherub was here only a few days to brighten their happy home and then taken to Him who gaveth to mingle with the myriad of cherubims in the Heavenly home, where no suffering or sorrow can ever reach her. Be comforted, parents, for He held a child in His arms and blessed it. Funeral services were held at the Catholic church yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Father Cusack. Burial in Catholic cemetery.

The Best Guaranty of Merit Is Open Publicity.

Every bottle of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y., has printed upon its wrapper all the ingredients entering into its composition. This fact alone places Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines in a class all by themselves. They cannot be classed with patent or secret medicines because they are neither. This is why so many unprejudiced physicians prescribe them and recommend them to their patients. They know what they are composed of, and that the ingredients are those endorsed by the most eminent medical authorities.

The further fact that neither Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart regulator and blood purifier, nor his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, overworked, broken-down, nervous women, contains any alcohol, also entitles them to a place all by themselves.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, is a better solvent and preservative of the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous, or native, medicinal plants than is alcohol; and, furthermore, that it possesses valuable medicinal properties of its own, being demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic, and a most efficient antiferment.

Neither of the above medicines contains alcohol, or any harmful, habit-forming drug, as will be seen from a glance at the formula printed on each bottle wrapper. They are safe to use and potent to cure.

Not only do physicians prescribe the above, non-secret, medicines largely, but the most intelligent people employ them—people who would not think of using the ordinary patent, or secret medicine. Every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines has the strongest kind of an endorsement from leading medical writers of the several schools of practice. No other medicines put up for like purposes have any such professional endorsement.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. One "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Druggists sell them, and nothing is "just as good." Easy to take as candy.

Meerschaum Mined.

Meerschaum, although the name means "sea foam," is not a marine product, but it is a soft, soap-like stone which is mined just as coal is mined. Asia Minor is the principal seat of the industry. In its crude state, meerschaum is yellow white in color, and a red clay coat or skin envelops the blocks taken from the mines. These blocks bring from $25 to $200 a car load. They are soft enough to cut with a knife. After being dried under the open sun in the summer, or in a warm room in winter, the blocks are sorted into different grades. They are wrapped into cotton and placed in cases for the market. The bulk of the product goes to Vienna, where the best pipe-makers are found.

An Ex-Bourbon Dead.

Mr. John G. Parrish, a well-known and worthy gentleman, died at his home in Georgetown on Wednesday night, in the 80th year of his age. He was born in Bourbon county, October 12, 1826. He was left an orphan at the age of seven years, when he was cared for by his oldest brother until he was thirteen years old, when he went to live with his uncle, Mr. E. H. Parrish, deceased, of Scott county. In 1848 he moved to Fayette county, where he remained until 1856, when he returned to Scott county and engaged in farming and stock raising. At one time he traded largely in mules. A year or more ago, on account of his age, and enfeebled health, he leased his handsome farm, on the Payne's Depot pike, and moved to Georgetown. He was three times married, and three times a widower. By his second marriage, Mr. Parrish has a surviving daughter, Mrs. E. P. Weathers, of Bourbon county. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

WALTER DAVIS!

A ONE-DAY SENSATION

SPECIAL SALE OF
Grey Enameled Ware,
FOR
Wednesday, July 18th.

The Bargain Event of the Season.

On a recent buying trip to New York we met with exceptional good fortune. We heard of a big lot of Grey and White Enameled Ware that a jobber was wanting to sell for cash at a sum that averaged up less per piece than anything we have ever before heard of. We went and inspected the lot, found it even more desirable than we had expected, and quickly closed the deal.

The lot was shipped to us last week, and now we are ready to hold a sale that we know will appeal to every housewife reading these lines.

On Wednesday, July 18,

we shall hold a grand special One-Day Sale of this White and Grey Enameled Ware, at the lowest prices, at which ware of this kind was ever sold in this town, in this or any other store. We shall not ask over 10c for a single piece in the lot; and many of them we shall offer for much less than that.

Remember that the sale lasts but one day; and do not neglect to come and see for yourself just how much this opportunity means to every wise, shrewd bargain-seeker. We expect to sell every bit of this big lot on this one day, for never were grander bargains offered in this store. Space does not permit us to specify prices, but 10c is the very highest.

For One Day Only,
WEDNESDAY, JULY 18th.

Paris Defeats Blue Licks.

In the presence of a crowd of 500 spectators Paris defeated the Blue Licks, of Covington, Sunday afternoon by a score of 8 to 0. The visitors only had four hits to their credit, three of them being made by Devnaey.

Rick Thomas, who was in the box for Paris, pitched an excellent game. He had perfect control, good speed and judgment, and at critical stages of the game held the heavy sluggers in check, striking out eight men. The locals had but little difficulty in finding the ball when hits were needed, Flick, Elgin and McBriar hitting for three bases.

Darringer in the eighth inning made a running catch of a hard drive from Sweitzer's bat that looked dangerous and brought vociferous cheering from the crowd. Paris made a beautiful double play in the fifth that spoiled a good chance for the visitors to score and save a shutout, and in the closing innings they struggled hard to avert the calamity.

Card of Thanks.

The Baptist Sunday School cleared $50 from their lawn fete last Thursday night which was given for the benefit of the new church. On Sunday the Sunday school gave a rising vote of thanks to the outside public for their patronage; to the Elks' Band for the splendid music; to the Democrat Publishing Co. for the tickets which they furnished free of charge; to the Bourbon News and Kentuckian-Citizen for advertising to Mr. George Davis for the use of their chairs and tables; to Mr. J. A. Stern, of the Fair, for the use of dishes; to Mr. C. A. Daugherty for free sign work, and to Mrs. Smith Clark for the use of her lawn.

The school will give another lawn fete in a few weeks.

19tf MRS. CANDICE SMITH.

A minister of the gospel, according to this tale, was walking to and fro in a long passage that ran through the house and meditating upon his next sermon. There brushed by him a housemaid. He watched her pass and enter his study. Fearing that she would disarrange his papers, he hurried after her, went into his study—and no one was there. No means of egress was possible but by the one door through which he had seen the girl enter. He rang the bell and—the housemaid came down from the top of the house, where she had been performing her duties. And yet that minister of the gospel is sure that he saw that housemaid pass him. Nor to this day does his stout and happy merriment know that she was ever in two places at once.

A Battle in the Sea.

Did you ever see bluefish charge a school of menhaden at sea? That is something worth seeing. The bluefish throw their lines forward until they almost surround the menhaden, and they attack them flank and rear. The menhaden fairly make the water boil in their efforts to escape, while all around the enemy is at them tearing relentlessly. Into all this commotion comes a great shark. It's a picnic for the shark, a school of menhaden all herded up for its benefit. It swims leisurely into the midst of them, opens its mouth and takes in half a dozen menhaden at a gulp. It swims around and bites out half a dozen more from the school. It gorges itself without effort. But the menhaden are not nearly as much disturbed by the presence of the monster swimming about among them as they are by the charging bluefish. The shark takes half a dozen fish or more at a bite, while the bluefish only bites a piece out of a single fish, but there is only one shark, while there may be thousands of bluefish plunging and tearing incessantly and killing and maiming at every stroke. The shark's a brute, but under such circumstances the menhaden have less of fear than they have of contempt for him.

A Photographic Warning.

The following story of a young lady living in the country who came to London to be photographed is told by M. A. P. and vouched for by a well known London photographer. After some days the lady, Miss B., was informed the photograph was not a success, and another sitting was suggested. This she agreed to, but again was informed that the photograph was a failure. There was a third sitting. In two days' time she received an urgent letter from the photographer asking her to come up to his studio and to bring a friend with her. Miss B. went, accompanied by her mother, and was shown the amazing results of the three sittings. The pictures of the girl herself were quite good, but in each plate there was to be seen standing behind her the figure of a man holding a dagger in his uplifted hand. The features, though faint, were clearly discernible, and Miss B. recognized them as those of her fiancée, an officer in the Indian army. The effect of this experience was so great that after a few days she wrote out to India, breaking off the engagement.

Language in France.

There are several districts in France where the very ancient tongues still survive. Basque is spoken by about 100,000 persons, who are naturally proud of a language that is their exclusive possession, for it is unlike every other spoken tongue, and the assertion is commonly made that to understand it one must have learned it in the cradle. This peculiar property gives in the mind of the Basque people support to their belief that it was the language of Adam and Eve. The same claim is advanced, though, for Breton. The Romans when they conquered Gaul compared Breton to croaking of ravens. About a million people speak Breton. Then there are Flemish, still spoken by a comparatively small number in northeastern France, Catalan in the Pyrenees-Orientales and Langue-doc and Provençal, whose gradual extinction has been delayed mainly by the efforts of a few literary enthusiasts.

Ancient Roses.

Flinders Petrie, the archaeologist, while excavating among some ancient Egyptian tombs, found a wreath of roses which had been bound into a garland and buried with the dead thousands of years ago. M. Crepin, the botanist and microscopist, made a careful examination of this queer find and prepared a paper on it which he read before the Royal society of Belgium. From this paper it appears that in places where the flowers were matted together they still retained their color as well as a very faint odor. The species to which they belong is now extinct, but a rose resembling them in several particulars is still grown in Egypt and Abyssinia.

"A Bare Bodkin."

"Bare" means "mere" as well as "naked," and I cannot doubt that by "bare bodkin" Shakespeare meant "mere bodkin," the point of the passage being with how contemptibly small an instrument we could, if we chose, put an end to life and all its bother. "Bare" probably was used instead of "mere" for the sake of effective alliteration. (Cf. with Hamlet's "bare bodkin," Richard II.'s "little pin," III, 2, 169.) For "bare" in the sense of "mere" I need cite only "bare imagination of a feast."—London Notes and Queries.

Four Days in the Year.

There are but four days in the year when the sun and clock exactly correspond. In other words, there are but four days of the 365 in which the sun is directly south at noon. The 15th of April and the 17th of June remember, August 21 and 24th of December. On these four days (and none else in the year) The sun and clock both the same time declare.

STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—W. H. Whaley, Jr., during the month of June shipped 28 cars of fat stock.

—Jonas Weil shipped two loads of cattle yesterday that he recently purchased at 5 cents from L. M. B. Bedford.

—It took 21,500 men and 2,800 teams to harvest the Kansas wheat crop, in addition to the usual quota of men and teams on the farms.

—Jonas Weil bought of W. F. Bryan, of North Middletown, 80 cattle weight 1,133 pounds at 4½ cents; 46 of them have been delivered and the remainder are to go August 1st.

—W. M. Jacobs sold 20,460 pounds of tobacco to D. W. Feed at 11 cents straight. Mr. Jacobs has sold his crops for the last 12 years at an average of 10 cents.

—Latest expressions from wheat experts are that this year's crop will be enormous, and some even place it at 420,000,000 bushels, the largest in the country's history.

—The 60-acre wheat crop of Mr. Jos. A. Wilson averaged 27 bushels per acre, and 60 pounds to the bushel. B. F. Buckley's crop in the same neighborhood, Jacksonville, averaged 30 bushels.

—Thomas McClintock & Sons shipped three cars of 210-pound hogs to Cincinnati that cost six cents per pound, and nine double-decks of lambs to Jersey City averaging 75 to 80 lbs., that cost 6 cents per pound.

—During the past week W. D. McIntyre, of Millersburg, shipped six double-deck cars of lambs to Swift & Co., of New York, costing five and one-half to seven cents; three cars of butcher cattle costing three and one-half to four cents per pound, and two cars of 200-pound hogs, costing five and one-half cents to six cents per pound. Mr. McIntyre also sold to the New England Dressed Wool Company, of Boston, 1,000 lambs for delivery August 1.
